

6th Annual Spotsylvania Stars and Stripes Spectacular

On Saturday, July 3rd, 2010 the 6th annual "Spotsylvania Stars & Stripes Spectacular" will take place at 3:00 p.m. in the Spotsylvania Court House area.

County staff is planning the sixth annual Independence Day celebration. Plans include a full day of diverse music, kids' activities, historical tours, demonstrations, food vendors, Colonial re-enactors, Fire and EMS volunteers, capped by a first-class fireworks display.

 & Spotsylvania County will once again provide a spectacular fireworks display at dark. The show will originate in the Spotsylvania Courthouse Village adjacent to Robert E. Lee Elementary School, and will be visible from viewing locations throughout the Court House area.

Many area businesses sponsored the first five Spectaculars to help keep this dream a reality. Spotsylvania County is grateful for their support and donations.
