Spotsylvania, VA: The Spotsylvania County Tourism and Special Events Commission and B101.5 and NewsTalk 1230 are pleased to announce the winning film selections for the 2004 Spotsylvania Film Festival. In the Classics category the winning film is “The Wizard of Oz”, it will be presented on the opening night of the Spotsylvania Film Festival, Thursday, July 8th. In the Action category, “The Lord of the Rings, Return of the King” was the movie receiving the most votes and will be shown on Friday, July 9th. The Family Comedy category winner was “Cheaper by the Dozen” starring Steve Martin and Bonnie Hunt and it will be screened on Saturday, July 10th. Finally in the Kids’ category, garnering the majority of the votes was “Ice Age” and it will be shown on the final night of the Film Festival, Sunday, July 11th.

As darkness begins to fall and the stars begin to twinkle; return to the bygone era of the “Drive-in” movie at the Spotsylvania Film Festival. Beginning Thursday, July 8, 2004 and running until Sunday, July 11, 2004 you may now come and enjoy four evenings of your favorite movies at Legion Field, which is located behind the Marshall Center in Spotsylvania Courthouse, Virginia. The venue will be equipped with a 26 foot high by 40 foot wide inflatable cinema quality movie screen and the Metro Technical Services’ professional sound and projection crew. There will be plenty of children’s’ activities, and fabulous vendors with popcorn, sandwiches, pizza, sno-cones, funnel cakes, candy, and ices. So bring your blankets or lawn chairs, but no pets, glass containers or alcoholic beverages. Admission is just $2 for everyone. Gates open at 6pm and the movie starts at dark. For more information and directions to Legion Field, please call the Spotsylvania County Tourism office at 540-891-TOUR.
