Dear Mr. Thomas,

Let this letter serve as an official termination of the agreement, dated 11/14/2013, between Spotsylvania County and Central Virginia Public Access Television Corporation (CVTV). The letter hereby severs the Public Access Management Agreement between the County and CVTV effective January 31, 2020.

The County would like to thank CVTV for all their hard work and dedication to the community. CVTV was an outlet for many local sporting events and seasonal activities that took place throughout the year.

On behalf of the County, we wish you all the best for the future.

Sincerely,

Jane Reeve
CIO/IT Director, Information Services

Subject: [EXTERNAL]: CVTV Closure

Today after much prayer and though I have come to the conclusion that is is time to close the door on a passion that I have had for the last 11 years, CVTV. We have met so many awesome people over the years and have had the opportunity to cover many, many fun events!

There are too many people to thank most of you are on the this email, however a special shout out to my good friend and counsel , David Kerr. Michele Trampe for getting this thing started in the early days. I would also like to thank Jane Reeve and Katy Da Silva of Spotsylvania County for all you support over the years.

January 31, all CVTV Broadcast, social media, websites and streaming sites will be shut down.

Charles
