4. The County shall have the right to trim, cut, and remove all trees, limbs, undergrowth, shrubbery, landscape plantings of any kind, fences, buildings, structures, paving, or other obstructions or facilities within said easement which it deems in any way to interfere with the proper and efficient construction, operation, and maintenance of the facilities in or on said easement.

7. Whether or not the easement herein conveyed is exclusive, no other party shall be granted the right to use or shall use any part of the area within such easement for any purpose or in any manner until after a review and a finding by the County in writing that such use will not be in conflict with, or inconvenient to, the County's use thereof or the purpose for which such easement was granted.

8. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit the placement of structures including fences within the easement by property owners of the underlying fee without prior approval of the County; provided that any such improvements shall be placed at the risk of the property owner and the County shall have the right to remove any such improvements should they interfere with the rights granted the County herein; without any additional compensation to the owner of the underlying fee, and further provided that any such improvements shall be in conformance with all other County ordinances.

9. Landowner has seen and carefully examined a copy of the hereinabove-described plat, is entirely familiar with the quantity of the land covered by this conveyance, and fully understands the effect that it will or might have on the value of the remaining property.

10. 11. The County may from time to time grant the right to others to locate facilities serving the public within the easement hereby conveyed, including but not limited to electric, telephone or gas utility facilities.

12. That this instrument covers all the agreements between the parties and no representations or statements, verbal or written, have been made which are inconsistent with the terms of this deed.
